

Braxton Makoa Abrams

Most of the time when he's uncomfortable, and hungry, he starts crying. But other than that he's calm. He was 9.5 lbs when he was born and was 20 1/2 inches. It only took my mom 2 pushes for him to come out, my younger brother was 3 pushes, I was 18 hours, my older brother was 2 hours, and my sister came 2 weeks early and took her 3 pushes.

Braxton is going to be a football player, or a basketball player. I say this because my other little brother, Bishop, already can throw a good spiral, and he has a little basketball hoop that he makes like everytime. So that's why I said he is going to do one of those 2 sports.

He's such a cutie!

The End!!!

Those are my 2 dogs!
