The Food Log Cabin

Mia, Baylee, and I, (Tiani), are a team to make a log cabin. Not Just any log cabin, but a FOOD LOG CABIN!!! We decided to make a food our food and making it we are making our food. Mia, Baylee, and I, (Tiani), are a team to make a log cabin. Not just any Tog Cabin out of anahom analog for the roof the Sam Batch Vide for so we could call altorn to rackers for the roof, the Sour Patch Kids for Log Cabin out of graham crackers for the roof, the Sour Patch Kids for the mini Carange on each end of the mini Log Cabin out of graham crackers for the marshmallows on each end tootsie people, clay for corn, pretzels with marshmallows together, and tootsie people, clay for the wall. Frosting to keep everything together, and tootsie people for the wall. Frosting to keep everything together, and tootsie people for the wall. people, cray for corn, preders with marshinanows on each city of the wall, Frosting to keep everything together, and tootsie pretzels for the wall, Frosting to keep everything together.

That'le substantial one steiner for the Ecoel Los Cabin pickers for gates. That's what we are using for the Food Log Cabin.
